Hanging Library, a Gift of Knowledge for Lesser-privileged:

In an effort to help provide good quality books to lesser privileged children studying in schools with no libraries, Books for All started a drive to raise funds for Hanging Libraries each comprising of about 140 beautifully illustrated books written in simple language. With the concentrated efforts of our supporters and staff we were able to give this gift of knowledge to the children of 19 schools in Noida alone. Apart from this 6 schools in Punjab, Bihar, Maharashtra and Varanasi have also received hanging Libraries. For this month we are planning to install 20 more libraries in Punjab, Bihar & Maharashtra and Noida.

Help us reach our target by sponsoring a library or by letting us know if the children in a school near you need one such library. Contact us at booksforallinfo@gmail.com

Sponsored Students, Dreams of a Brighter Future:

We at Books for All sponsor education of bright children to change the course of their lives and also provide handholding and mentoring support to them.
