

BFA libraries abuzz after summer break:

Schools have reopened and BFA libraries are buzzing with activities. Our Librarians are engaging students coming to the library by developing life skills and reading habits. Storytelling, Quiz, Recitation, Art, and Craft are part of the daily activities.

Student and Budding Writer from Dubai donates to BFA:

Happiness doesn't result from what we get, but from what we give.

Shradha Sujeeth, a budding writer, and a student of Gems Modern Academy, Dubai wrote and sold almost 200 books during Covid. She felt inspired to write during the lockdown. She has donated her earnings toward the BFA hanging library project and she strives to continue supporting the Hanging library program.

BFA is proud of her contribution!

Smart, Savvy Dashboard by Genpact:

Technology is successful when it is implemented for the benefit of society.

BFA is delighted to use the Smart Dashboard developed by Genpact which has helped improve the operations across our libraries.

With real time data captured to extraction of data as required for better planning, this dashboard is helping us to measure the impact of our libraries.

We track details like classes, number of students, kind of activity conducted and many other fields.
