We Don't Teach, We Educate

Volume 9, Issue No 11: Dec 2024

A heartwarming Start to our 15th Anniversary!

As part of our 15th Anniversary of Books For All (BFA), BFA planned a series of captivating storytelling sessions! Stories have a unique power to ignite imagination, and these sessions bring that magic to life.

The first of five sessions held at SVM School in Village Sadarpur, Sector 45, Noida. Jaishree Sethi from Story Ghar captivated over 250 students with her lively storytelling, using puppets and masks to make the tales come alive. The session ended on a joyful note, with children painting the story's characters, adding their creative touch to the experience.

Adding to the celebrations, snack packets were distributed to the students, spreading smiles across the school. It was a heartwarming start to this milestone anniversary!

Convocation Ceremony for Vocational Training Students

Ms. Tripti Gupta exhorting the students during the convocation ceremony

On 23rd November 2024, BFA organized a Convocation Ceremony for Vocational Training Students, where 40 students received their certificates. Our donors, partnering institutions, school principals, and former students also participated in the event, making it memorable and impactful. Such events not only instill a sense of pride in the students who complete their training successfully but also create strong bonds and support groups among students.

We are grateful to Ms. Tripti Gupta, Director of Salasar Techno Engineering Ltd., for her valuable presence and inspiring talk. Her desire to improve the lives of economically weaker sections through her company's efforts will transform the lives of many young students.

Meet our Rising Star; Prakriti with 96%

Prakriti scored an impressive 96.38% in her half-year exams, showcasing her dedication and hard work. Her journey to academic excellence became even more inspiring after she joined our Impact Mission Sarthak sponsorship program. We are immensely proud of her achievements and deeply grateful to her sponsor and mentors for their unwavering support in helping her realize her potential.

Our Volunteer; Ms. Indrani Rajkhowa Banerjee on 15 Years of BFA

Ms. Indrani shares her joy as she volunteers with Books For All

Acts of kindness have shaped my life in countless ways, turning a small-town girl into a confident journalist in the heart of Delhi. Reflecting on my journey, I'm deeply grateful for the helping hands that guided me—teachers, mentors, colleagues, and friends who offered opportunities, shared their wisdom, and extended warm support. Today, as a volunteer with Books For All (BFA), I find immense joy in paying this kindness forward. Working with underprivileged children, helping them dream, learn, and rise through storytelling and skill-building, gives me a sense of fulfillment and purpose. Celebrating BFA's 15th Anniversary with storytelling sessions and creative activities reminds me how small acts of love can ignite young minds and spread happiness, and I'm proud to be part of this mission.
