Crayons, Creativity & Summer Fun

Summer vacation began on a bright and joyful note for students at Gejha Primary School! Just before the break, Deepali Kukreja Ji, Trustee of Books For All, visited the school and gifted over 300 colouring books and crayon sets to the students of class 1st to 5th grade.

Encouraging them to explore their creativity, Deepali Ji visit turned into a joyful session filled with smiles, laughter, and vibrant colours. With members of the BFA team also joining in, it was a heartwarming send-off to a summer full of imagination.

Turning Pages, Changing Futures

In the small village of Kanpa, Baldirai block, Sultanpur (UP), hope arrived quietly — in the form of a Wall Hung Library (WHL) from Books For All.

For children who've grown up with few books beyond their school syllabus, this simple bookshelf is magic. Colourful storybooks now line the walls of PS Kanpa, inviting young minds to explore, imagine, and dream beyond the classroom.

The principal, deeply moved, shared:

"These books are more than just pages — they're opportunities. They'll help our children build habits that last a lifetime."

Mr Vaibhav Singh

Since the library's arrival, students have begun flocking to it during every free moment. Stories are being read aloud, shared, and cherished — a quiet revolution in the making.

From Learning to Earning – Gaurav's Inspiring Start

Just a few months ago, Gaurav was a student at Ficks BMG, quietly working his way through the Operation Theater Technician (OTT) course with a mix of hope and uncertainty. Today, he proudly walks into GIMS, Noida, earning a steady salary of ₹14,000/month—his first job, and a huge step forward. Gaurav's journey is not just about landing a job. It's about transformation. Behind his success is the consistent support and training provided by Books For All (BFA), an organisation committed to empowering young people from underserved communities through skill-based education and guidance.

At BFA, we believe in bridging the gap between education and employment—and Gaurav's story proves that when the right support meets the right intent, new futures are built. Here's to many more stories like Gaurav's!

Books Beyond Sight: A Gift of Reading Together!

Recently, Sparsh sent Braille books to the District Education Department in Dimapur, Nagaland, and the impact has been truly heartwarming. Over 4 institutions received the books, and the joy is visible—schools have even shared pictures of Visually Impaired children happily reading.

For many such students, this is their first time accessing story books made just for them.

At Sparsh, we remain committed to providing Braille, tactile, and accessible eBooks to institutions that lack them.

If you know a school that needs such books, please let us know—we'll ensure they receive them. Every child deserves the joy of reading.
